CANS-NY Supervisor Training for NYS Health Homes Serving Children: Supervision and Transformational Collaborative Outcomes Management (TCOM)

This full-day training gives an overview of the ways that the CANS-NY has been used to meaningfully manage different service sectors in New York. Additionally, provide a developmental and cultural framework for the implementation of TCOM and the CANS-NY in supervision and care management. Care management supervisors will learn how to supervise around collaborative assessment, care planning, and progress monitoring with the CANS-NY. Strategies for supporting cultural humility and culturally responsive care, and integrating CANS-NY information into individual supervision and team development are presented. Time will be provided for supervisors to practice skills presented and participate in small-group discussion of relevant issues that arise in supervising the CANS-NY in Health Home care management.
